The Account of the State of Affairs in Europe in September Laſt, concluded.

HOLLAND.

HAGUE

THE Queen of Hungary's Miniſters repreſent to the States, the abſolute Neceſſity of immediately ſupplying her Majeſty with Money. They ſet forth, that ſhe has augmented her Troops with 32,000 effective Men: That ſhe has been at a very extraordinary Expence, by cauſing 32,000 of them to march into Bohemia, and into Moravia, beſides a Body of 40,000 Men, which cannot march unleſs ſhe be ſpeedily aſſiſted with the neceſſary Supplies. The States are to conſider of this Demand; mean time, they are forming the ſtrongeſt Alliances, by granting of Subſidies to ſeveral foreign Courts, in order to augment their Forces both by Sea and Land. The Elector of Cologn has been promiſed a Yearly Subſidy of 800,000 Florins, on Condition, that he ſupplies a Body of 10,000 Men, three Fourths of which Sum is to be paid by Great Britain, and the remaining fourth by the Republick. We are endeavouring to contract with the ſame Court for 10,000 Men more, upon the ſame Conditions.

It has been ſignify'd to Mr Trevor by ſome of the States, that this is not a proper Time to comply with his Demand of declaring War againſt France; for that ſuch a Proceeding might be injurious, but could be of no Service to the common Cauſe, becauſe their High Mightineſſes in that Caſe could do no more than they do at preſent, their Troops making more than one third Part of the Allied Army, they having there forty four Squadrons of Horſe, and twenty eight Battalions of Foot, beſides twenty ſail of Men of War at Sea; ſo that a Declaration of War, which is ſo ſtrongly inſiſted on, might be followed by very diſadvantageous Conſequences. France irritated by ſuch a Conduct, would draw all her Forces which ſhe could ſpare from the Rhine into the Netherlands, and after having taken the principal Cities there, would eaſily penetrate to the Frontiers of the United Provinces, where there are neither Fortreſſes nor Troops to ſtop their Progreſs. The Allies would then be under a Neceſſity of dividing their Forces, and the States General obliged to withdraw their Troops from the Allied Army, in order to defend their own Country: It ought alſo to be conſidered, that the States cannot recruit their Troops ſo eaſily as the Queen of Hungary; they cannot even come at thoſe they have raiſed in Switzerland, the French being Maſters of the Rhine.

By the laſt Advices from Flanders, it appears, that Count Saxe who came with 14,000 Men to Pont d'Eſpierre, did not think fit to ſtand his Ground, upon the Allied Army marching down the left of the Scheld.—The Ruſſian Miniſter has declared to the Preſident of the Week, his Miſtreſs's Intention to perform her Engagements to his Britannick Majeſty.—We learn, that the King of Pruſſia having left 6000 Troops in Prague, marched toward Budweis, and was at Tabor, on the Moldaw, and Prince Charles was arrived at Pilſen, on Sept 28. Extract of a Letter from the Reverend Mr. Shurtleff of Portſmouth PISCATAQUA, to a Miniſter in Boſton.

Portſmouth Nov. 23. 1744.

Rev Sir,

I WAS favour'd with Yours the Poſt before laſt; and as to Mr. Whitefield's Reception among us, of which you ſay you wou'd be gladly inform'd; the Time will allow me only to give you this ſhort Account of it at preſent.

He came hither from York on the 6th Inſtant in the Afternoon. Upon his croſſing the Ferry, Mr Fitch, and I, with ſome others, met him, and congratulated him upon his late Arrival among us. A conſiderable Number being convened expecting to hear him, Mr Fitch aſked him, that Evening, to preach in his Meeting Houſe; who readily comply'd with his Requeſt. He was to have preached the next Morning in ours, but was ſo much indiſpos'd as not to be able to do it, 'till the Afternoon. He preached both Times to a large, an attentive, and affected Audience. In the Evening after he preach'd with us, he had a Return of the Malady he was viſited with at his firſt landing at York; which roſe to that Degree as to give his Phyſicians and others ſome Apprehenſion of Danger. But (thro' Mercy) he is now in a great Meaſure recover'd, and was ſo well as to preach again Yeſterday.

The Prejudices of moſt that ſet themſelves againſt him before his coming, ſeem to be in a great Meaſure abated, and in ſome wholy remov'd; and there is no open Oppoſition made to him.—I have frequent Opportunities of being with, and there always appears in him ſuch a Concern for the Advancement of the REDEEMER's Kingdom, and the good of Souls; ſuch a Care to employ his whole Time to theſe Purpoſes; ſuch a Sweetneſs of Diſpoſition, and ſo much of the Temper of his great LORD and MASTER; that every Time I ſee him, I find my Heart further drawn out towards him. I hope in GOD that his Labours will be bleſs'd here, and with you; and that wherefoever, he ſhall call him, a great Door and an effectual will be open'd to him.

Your affectionate Friend,
William Shurtleff.

Saturday, Nov. 24. The Rev. Mr. Whitefield was ſo far reviv'd as to be able to take Coach, with his Conſort, and ſet out from Portſmouth to Boſton; whether he came in a very feeble State, the Monday Evening after: ſince which he has been able to preach in ſeveral of our largeſt Houſes of publick Worſhip, particularly the Rev. Dr. Colman's, Dr. Sewall's, Mr. Webb's, and Mr. Gee's, to crowded Aſſemblies of People, and to great and growing Acceptance. At Dr. Colman's Deſire, and the Conſent of the Church, on the Lord's Day after his Arrival, he adminiſtered to them the Holy Communion. And laſt Lord's Day he preach'd for the venerable Mr. Chauncy of Chelſea, and adminiſtered the Holy Supper there: The next Day preach'd for the Rev. Mr. Emerſon of Malden: Yeſterday he ſet out to preach at ſome Towns to the Northward, propoſed to return hither the next Wedneſday Evening, and after a few Days, to comply with the earneſt Invitations of ſeveral Miniſters, to go and preach to their Congregations, in the Southern Parts of the Province.

He comes with the ſame extraordinary Spirit of Meekneſs, Sweetneſs and univerſal Benevolence as before: In Oppoſition to the Spirit of Separation and Bigotry, is ſtill for holding Communion with all Proteſtant Churches. In Oppoſition to Enthuſiaſm, he preaches a cloſe Adherence to the Scriptures, the Neceſſity of trying all Impreſſions by them, and of rejecting whatever is not agreeable to them, as Deluſions. In Oppoſition to Antinomianiſm, he preaches up all Kinds of relative and religious Duties, tho' to be perform'd in the Strength of CHRIST, and in ſhort, the Doctrines of the Church of England, and the firſt Fathers of this Country. As before, he firſt applies himſelf to the Underſtandings of his Hearers, and then to the Affections: And the more he preaches, the more he convinces People of their Miſtakes about him, and increaſes their Satisfaction.

From the Boſton Gazette, No. 1193.

To the Publiſher of the Boſton Gazette.

I Doubt not the Rev. Miniſters of Boſton can render a ſufficient Reaſon for their affectionate Reception and Entertainment of Mr. Whitefield, and will ſoon return an Anſwer to the Country Clergymen's Letter, ſuch as will be at leaſt to the Satisfaction of thoſe who have any Reſpect for the late ſurprizing Work of GOD in this Land; of which 'tis univerſally and muſt unavoidably be confeſs'd Mr Whitefield was, under GOD, the principal Means of reviving. Mean while, as theſe aſſociated Miniſters plainly aim at the Diſparagement of the Work it ſelf thro' Mr. Whitefield, it's the Opinion of ſome that you will do an acceptable Service to the Cauſe of CHRIST and this happy Diſpenſation of his Grace, by inſerting in your next Paper, the Names of thoſe worthy Miniſters who have born an explicit and honourable Teſtimony to it. --- This certainly muſt impreſs the Minds of all candid People with infinitly more Force (as they teſtify what they have ſeen and intimately Known) than the Declarations of others, who have always ſtood at a Diſtance, and never fully acquainted themſelves with it, and oppoſe it with general Charges of Error, which they have never proved, and of Diſorders which they themſelves and their Confederates have had a conſiderable Hand in the Production and Spread of. Their Oppoſition to the Work or Doctrines of Grace ſo evidently of late revived, is the true known Source of many of the Separations and unhappy Diſorders, which they now throw in the Way of Mr. Whitefield's Uſefulneſs. --- But a particular Illuſtration of theſe Things muſt be left to ſome Rev Gentlemen, who will look upon themſelves called in Providence to appear for the Defence of this great Intereſt. --- I am ſenſible that it is whiſper'd about, that the Doctrines of Grace and experimental Piety, are a ſinking Cauſe--- which ſhows the Expediency of ſome vigorous Meaſures to ſupport them.
